

Table of Contents

On the Cover

Crosby Arboretum near Picayune showcases native plants in their natural environment. (Photograph by Marco Nicovich)

Back Cover

The carnivorous pitcher plant is one of the most unusual wildflowers at Crosby Arboretum. (Photograph by Marco Nicovich)

- 4 Delta HOPE
Program promotes healthy lifestyles for children.
- 6 Termite invasion
MSU scientists seek ways to control Formosan termites.
- 8 Crosby Arboretum
South Mississippi site preserves state’s native plants.
- 11 Towns turn green
Urban forestry helps towns create more green space.
- 12 New appointments
Administrative changes have been made in the Division of Agriculture, Forestry and Veterinary Medicine.
- 14 Deployment support
4-H mobilizes to help military kids cope.
- 16 Focus
Teaching, research and outreach in the Division of Agriculture, Forestry and Veterinary Medicine.
- 22 BATTLE
Program helps women fight back against breast cancer.
- 23 Soybean rust
Winds have blown a new plant disease into Mississippi.
- 24 Fish research
Research provides tools for the fight against fish production problems.
- 26 Fulbright award
Scholarship sends MSU apparel designer on international clothing hunt.
- 28 Awards presented
The 2005 Wise, Foil and White award winners have been announced.
- 29 Editorial
Extension is changing to serve the needs of its clients.
- 30 Breaking new ground
Meet our development partners.