

4

10

14

22

25

Table of Contents

On the Cover

Shrimp boats still line the public dock on Biloxi's Back Bay, but their numbers have been thinned by Katrina and low shrimp prices. The story beginning on page 6 examines some of the obstacles facing the shrimp industry and MSU's work with Gulf fishermen. (Photo by Bob Ratliff)

Back Cover

Pat Rodrigue worked this summer on a mural showing rodeo events at the Pam Bell Adams Arena in the Yalobusha County Multipurpose Building. The individuals depicted in the drawing are Yalobusha County residents, most of whom have competed at the arena. In addition to being an accomplished artist, Rodrigue is a part-time employee at the Yalobusha County MSU Extension Service office and a 4-H volunteer.

4 Young Farmers

Award-winning young farmers are bringing national attention to Yalobusha County.

6 Lean Times

Mississippians who fish for shrimp in the Gulf are facing tough economic times.

8 Floral Rewards

They love flowers, but floral design also has other rewards for two MSU students.

9 New Technology

TimTek is helping create a new market for small trees.

10 4-H Fairy Tale

Award-winning 4-H'ers use an original play to promote reading.

12 Lab Support

A group of MSU laboratories helps support Mississippi's animal industries.

14 New Fuel

A diverse group of individuals is helping unlock the potential of biodiesel.

16 Focus Section

Many MSU students earn while they continue to learn during the summer.

22 Tapping Resources

MSU workshops help landowners find new ways to tap into new sources of income.

24 Forest Show

MSU's Starr Forest hosts the "Greatest Show in the Woods."

26 Working Partnership

MSU and the U.S. Department of Agriculture join forces at Poplarville lab.

27 Landmarks Editorial

The College of Veterinary Medicine's new dean talks about career opportunities.

28 Award Winners

DAFVM personnel are in the spotlight.

30 Breaking New Ground

Development partners provide essential support for the Division.