

Table of Contents

On the Cover

"Memories of Yore," a 4-H junior photography award winner by Natalie Gross, 13, of Lauderdale County. See page 16 for more winners from the 4-H Expressive Arts program.

Back Cover

The 4-H Museum in Jackson celebrated its grand opening in December. (Photo by Tom Thompson)

4 Balancing Act

Biological engineering major keeps athletics and academics in balance.

6 Rose Roles

The MSU Rose Garden is more than just a place to smell the roses.

8 Beef Team

These students know where the beef is and how to cook it, too.

10 TV History

MSU's Farmweek is celebrating 30 years on Mississippi Public Broadcasting TV.

12 Bad Birds

Scientists are keeping tabs on cormorants, a bird species that is bad news for catfish.

14 Quick Bites

Interactive video brings lunchtime learning to county Extension offices.

15 Chasing Clues

A few good clues is all it take for CVM lab personnel to solve illness mysteries.

16 Focus Section

Mississippi 4-H'ers have lots of opportunities to show their creativity.

23 Family Forests

Good management skills are the key to keeping forestland in the family.

24 Coast Swarm

Volunteers from across the nation have helped rebuild Gulf Coast public landscapes.

25 Hidden Value

Recreation-based businesses offer ways to add value to rural land.

26 DeSoto County

Mississippi's fastest growing county is also steeped in history.

27 Landmarks Editorial

Technology is opening new science frontiers.

28 News Notes

News of people and activities in the Division of Agriculture, Forestry and Veterinary Medicine.

30 Breaking New Ground

Development funds help MSU meet changing needs.